Analyze the passage below from Snow White's fairy tale focusing on the depiction of the females.

Snow White pleaded with her hosts. "Please don't send me away! If you do, the Queen will kill me!"

Grumpy shook his head. "The Queen's an old witch. If she finds you here, she'll swoop down and wreak her vengeance on all of us!"

"Oh, she'll never find me here. And if you let me stay, I'll keep house for you. I'll wash and sew and sweep and cook..."

"Cook!" Doc rubbed his tummy. "Hooray! She stays!"

Back in the castle, the wicked Queen stood before her mirror. "Magic Mirror on the wall, who now is the fairest one of all?"

"Beyond the seventh fall, in the cottage of the seven dwarfs, Snow White still lives, fairest one of all."

"I've been tricked! I'll go myself, to the dwarfs' cottage in the woods. I'll go in disguise so complete, no one will suspect me."

The Queen concocted a magic potion, then transformed herself into an ugly old peddler woman.

"And now a special sort of death for one so fair. What should it be? Ah, a poisoned apple! One taste, and Snow White's eyes will close forever."
